Language is used in different ways; formally, in business and in academic work and informally, among family members and friends. People when speak and write a language arrive at acceptable ways of using words and combining them within sentences, they develop a standard usage in grammar, spelling, punctuation, and meaning. Nonstandard usage confuses people. Therefore, good writing is, first of all correct writing; it follows standard usage in grammar. Grammar is the study of words and the way they are combined in sentences. Musicians work with notes, painters with colors, and writers with words. Words are the substance of compositions, the arrangement of which makes the form of composition.

41. Standard usage refers to ..... .

- 1) correct ways of using formal languages.
2) rules of language accepted by those who use it.

Speaking in a foreign language is what most people want. Every year many people start learning one. Some people try at home with books and tapes.

Some use the radio or TV programs; thousands go to evening classes. If they use the language only 2 or 3 times a week, it will take some time to learn a language, like language learning at school. Some people try to learn a language fast by studying for 6 hours or more a day. Some travel to the country where the language is spoken to learn it. However, most people do not have enough money to go abroad, some people need the language to their work better, For example, students, doctors, and scientists need to read foreign books and reports. Others need it for some other purposes.

Whether a language is learnt quickly or slowly, it is a hard work. Laboratories and good books and tapes will help, but nothing can be as effective as a good teacher.

45. Language learning at school .....

- 1) almost take a long time
- 2) does not prepare children for life
- 3) is the quickest way to learn a language
- 4) is harder than language learning at home

46. We understand from the text that learning a language by ..... is the most effective way.

- 1) the use of lab and tapes
- 2) the help of a good teacher
- 3) travelling to other countries
- 4) good books and reports
