Some people think they have an answer to the troubles of automobile crowding and dirty air in large cities. The answer is the bicycle. In some great cities, hundreds of people ride bicycles to work every day. Some bicycle riders have formed groups of active people who try to get their city governments to help bicycle riders. They believe if more people rode bicycle, there would be fewer automobiles in the down town part of the city and therefore less dirty air from car engines. They suggest that there should be some special lanes on some of the main streets for bicycles only. They believe when bicycle riders use the same lanes as car, there are accidents. Also, if there were special lanes, more people would use bicycles. But a group of taxi drivers and some shopkeepers don't like the idea.
